

How About Your Teeth?

Do you realize how very important it is that your teeth should be in good condition? There is nothing more injurious to your health than decayed and aching teeth. The longer you put off having them fixed the harder they'll be to fix in the end, and the more suffering and expense you will have to stand. My methods are absolutely painless and reliable, and all my work is guaranteed for 20 years. See me today.

CHILDREN TAKE PART IN "OAK OF GEISMAR"

Dr. Henry Van Dyke's Story Presented at Magruder School Playground.

Nearly 100 children took part in the presentation of Dr. Henry Van Dyke's story, "Oak of Geismar," at the Magruder School playground, Friday evening.

This was the principal feature of the field day exercises. "Little Red Riding Hood" was given by smaller children. The dramatizations were interspersed with folk songs and dances by groups of children, assisted by Mr. S. D. Matthews. Children in costumes, led by Miss Elsie Alston, a pupil at M Street High School, marched in procession. As they marched they sang the "Pilgrims Chorus" from "Tannhauser." Following this program, athletic contests were held.

The "Oak of Geismar" relates how a band of pilgrims, nearly twelve centuries ago, journeyed through central Germany and supplanted Druidism with Christianity.

Those taking leading parts in the "Oak of Geismar" were George Lee, Lee Johnson, Jennings Brown, Frank Trigg, Marie Jordan, Raymond Glas-

PUPILS TO EXHIBIT RESULTS OF THEIR WORK

Handicraft Display to Feature Fete at Grover Cleveland School—Roof Garden Dance Thursday Evening.

This is to be a banner week for the Margaret Wilson Social Center of the Grover Cleveland School, 8th and T streets northwest, with two big events scheduled—the exhibition of industrial work done during the six-week term, in the school auditorium, Tuesday evening, and the formal opening of the center roof garden with a dance Thursday evening.

Extensive decorations are planned for each evening, and the school orchestra, under the direction of Miss Ida Ullman, who has had the co-operation of William Sisselman, one of the fathers of the neighborhood, is to make its first public appearance.

As an added attraction for the exhibition Tuesday evening, the women of the neighborhood have, of their own accord and entirely by their own efforts, arranged for a lawn fete on the school playground, the proceeds of which are to be expended for playground improvements.

Work to Be Shown. All of the prominent school officials of the District have stated their intention of attending the exhibition Tuesday evening. The industrial work to be shown includes Indian and rhythmic dance costumes made and dyed in the center; baskets of all sorts, raffia, reed and Indian design, and some very attractive dyed baskets and trays; cross-stitch and embroidery work, some of the wee little girls of the kindergarten class showing play arranged themselves to supply all the characters; an array of preserves, jellies and canned goods and crocheted work.

The committee in charge consists of Mrs. J. Silver, Misses Elsie Strasser, Edna Carr, Goldie Norton, Elsie Kane, Bernice Blair and Marie Grafton, all of whom are volunteer workers in the social, industrial and civic center.

The decorations are to be an attractive feature of the affair. Mrs. S. A. Grafton is in charge of this and has secured the co-operation of a trained decorator, Samuel Hammer. Mrs. Grafton, accompanied by Miss Florence "Chambers" and a committee of the older boys, is going with a horse and wagon into the woods tomorrow to get flowers, ferns and boughs of foliage. The school is going to send in a wagon-load of hydrangeas and pine cones. The use of a large number of palms and ferns has been donated. Illuminated hanging baskets, to be conspicuous in the decorations, the wiring for the electrical effects being done by Mervin Ullman. The committee consists of Walter Schriener, Warren Winner, Joseph Weidman and Hyman Dodder.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY. Bennie Sam Accused of Holding Up Dominic Diadimo.

Charged with robbery, Bennie Sam, 164 1/2 street southwest, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Policeman Benham of the fourth precinct and locked up. It is alleged that he held up Dominic Diadimo, 495 C street southwest, near the city post office yesterday morning and robbed him of money of wearing apparel and a railroad ticket.

Diadimo alleges that Sam exhibited a pistol and threatened to shoot him. The prisoner denies the charge.

Henry Bartley Flees Hospital. Henry Bartley, thirty-seven years old, a patient at Government Hospital for the Insane, disappeared from the institution yesterday afternoon and failed to return. The police were asked to arrest him as a fugitive from the hospital.

False Alarm Summons Firemen. A false alarm of fire was sounded from box 327, located at 27th and I streets northwest, yesterday afternoon. The police think the alarm was sounded by a seven-year-old boy, whose name was not made public.
